Watson's Ten Dollar Sewing Machine

A Warning to the Public! This mechine, as stated below is a counterfelt, and all persons are hereby cautioned against selling, buying, or using them. Whenever and wherever they are found the law will be strictly enforced. All parties using these machines as well as those who vend them, make themselves liable for damages.

About the 20th day of August, 1856, 1 was employed by Messrs. Watson, Wooster & Co., composed of Wm. C. Watson, Morris Knight, and 300,000 Cypress and Poplar shingles on hand Geo. H. Wooster, to manufacture Sewing Ma-chines, which were known as the "Watson Ten Clarksville, Receiving, Forwarding, and Commission Dollar Sewing Machine." That thereafter I received a notice from the counsel of O. B. Potter and N. Wheeler; mentioned in the annexed copy of injunction, informing me that these Machine were an infringement upon Letters Patent which they owned, and that saits would be instituted against me, unless I should otherwise actile with frem. This notice I handed to Mr. Wooster, one of my employers. I then made investigations to ascertain the facts, and found that said Machine, as I believed, was an infringement of said Patent, and I informed said Watson that such was my opinion. Susbsequently a suit was commenced against Susbacquently a suit was commenced against me by said Potter and Wheeler, and immediately thereafter I so informed Mr. Watson, and requested him to take charge of the defence of the same, and he refused to do so, and I then told him that I would have nothing more to do with it, and I then ceased to make the Machines; and the injunction, a copy of which is hereto ansexed, was issued and served upon me.
